

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

48 Black Interior Designers and Creatives for Black History Month

Friday, February 5, 2016, by Asad Syrkett

Flipping through the kinds of glossy home decor magazines that take up residence in doctors' offices and line the shelves at high-end grocery stores, you would think the world of interior design lacked black interior designers almost entirely.

As today marks the end of the first week of Black History Month, we're taking a moment to recognize black talent across the interior design industry, from the interior designers themselves to the photographers, textile pros, and artisans of all sorts who are contributing their creative wizardry to homes across the U.S. and abroad. This isn't an exhaustive accounting by any means, but instead a first step in the direction of recognizing the broad diversity of talent in the biz.

Here now, in no particular order, 48 creatives you should get to know! And feel free to add on to our list in the comments section.
