

the O list

A few springtime upgrades we think are just great!

Around the World in 80 Steps

Globe, meet trot. These elegant leather-soled slippers are handmade in Marrakech and inspired by 18th-century French pastoral patterns that have been cleverly reimagined by Sheila Bridges, an acclaimed interior designer in Harlem. (Harlem Toile Moroccan babouches, originally $135 per pair, now 20 percent off with code OPRAH; sheilabridges.com)

PROP STYLING: MEGUMI EMOTO/ANDERSON HOPKINS. SOFT GOODS STYLING: PHYLLIS EVANS BAKER.

Tool Me Once

You don't have to be a top chef to use this premier collection of cooking essentials. Each gadget—including a spatula, a spoon, and (why not?) a spoonula—is heat-resistant up to 550°, meaning it won't singe an unsuspecting stirrer. (Ultimate seven-piece tool sets, originally $80 each, now 20 percent off with code OPRAH; gir.co)

Seal the Deal

Clang, clang, clang go your bulky pan lids. Replace your cymbal-like toppers with this three-in-one stainless steel cover wrapped in silicone. When all is sautéed and done, it can even double as a trivet.

(Universal lid for pans, originally $59, now 20 percent off with code OPRAH; madeincookware.com)

Come Up Dry

What could make a bath better? Having Jason Momoa as your personal bubble pourer, sure. Or you could just try swaddling yourself afterward in one of these plush, made-in-Portugal cotton towels. They're hypoallergenic and (for an additional fee) can even be embroidered with things like MRS. MOMOA. (Piped-edge starter pack, from $230; weezietowels.com)

Hamper Yourself

Laundry day isn't always fun—but these Italian-made snap-together carriers (constructed from washable paper and available in handsome colors like charcoal and blush) sure are. (Uashmama Modular Snap & Separate laundry bags, $138 for set of two; food52.com)

Looming Large

Single-use plastics are on the way out, but you'll get great mileage out of these rugs woven from PVC ribbon. Unfurl the easy-to-clean mats in a foyer or next to the fire pit. (Pappelina mono indoor/outdoor reversible rugs, originally from $56 each, now 20 percent off with code OPRAH; toytoise.com)

Chop of the Line

This neatnik-approved cutting board can help you keep tidy during meal prep from start to finish, whether you're mincing a whole head of garlic (a removable tray keeps your dinner separate from your scraps) or carving up a juicy ham (liquid-catching grooves help prevent spillage). (Cup Board Pro, $60; williams-sonoma.com)

Rhythm and Glow

Let there be light—and light jazz. This space-saving, mushroom-resembling device is both a lamp and a Wi-Fi-enabled speaker, so you can simultaneously set a special evening's mood lighting and music without fussing over multiple gizmos and cords. (IKEA x Sonos Symfonisk table lamp with speaker, $179; ikea-usa.com)

Splish-Splashy

You'll be singing in the rain in this waterproof slicker. A toasty oasis with heat-sealed seams and elasticized cuffs that can wick away drops and drips, the coat also folds up into an adorably travel-size pouch.

(Sloane women's jacket, originally $64, and Sam kids' jacket, $49, now 20 percent off with code OPRAH; o8lifestyle.com)

At Your Service

If your chili cook-off is bombarded with last-minute RSVPs, unpack a set of six stoneware bowls and two plates, all of which can be popped into the dishwasher after your surprise guests depart. (Luna nesting dinnerware sets, originally $172 each, now 20 percent off with code OPRAH; lenox.com)

Smooth Operator

This ten-speed blender plus mesh-filtered juicer—a.k.a. a Bluiicer—lets you make snazzy concoctions on Saturday (when frozen-margarita o'clock strikes), Sunday (when you need an apple-and-carrot pick-me-up after Pilates class), and every other day of the week. (3X Bluiicer Pro, $400; breville.com)
