

Union Los Angeles Launches Skate Deck Designed by Sheila Bridges to Benefit Tyre Nichols Skate Park

The limited edition skate deck will see proceeds being put toward the Tyre Nichols Skate Park in Sacramento, California.

BY TRACE WILLIAM COWEN

Jun 05, 2023

Image via UNION Los Angeles

For a new skate deck design benefiting the Tyre Nichols Skate Park in Sacramento, Union Los Angeles has enlisted the artistic talent of Sheila Bridges.

The limited edition deck, seen in greater detail below, incorporates a design from Bridges inspired by the artist's Harlem Toile de Jouy wallpaper. As for how rare this run of decks will be, a press release reveals it will be limited to just 100 decks. Per Union founder

...and 50, a press release reveals it will be limited to just 200 decks. For Union founder Chris Gibbs, the deck serves as a way to both honor Nichols' "too-short life" and further his legacy.

"Sheila and I hope that in our small way, we can continue to make the world aware about Tyre Nichols' devastating, unnecessary death," Gibbs said in a statement.

The deck is available now via the Union shop in Los Angeles and the label's official site.

See more below

See more ideas on

Image via UNION Los Angeles

Image via UNION Los Angeles

Related Stories

Best Style Releases This Week: Union Los Angeles, Stone Island, and More

Ranking All of Union's Nike Collaborations, From Worst to Best

The Best Brands of 2022