

« CURVES ARE COOL

Why be square? Naturalmat's low-profile Budleigh bed has a rounded silhouette, solid beech frame and oversized wooden bun feet made from sustainable timber. Cushioned with several layers of recycled denim, it's topped with breathable organic wool. Seen here upholstered in bouclé. From £1,260, naturalmat.co.uk

SPOT ON

A statement lamp for the bedside table instantly elevates a bedroom interior. New for autumn, David Hunt's Bobble table lamp in Persian blue and juniper green, £295 (shade sold separately). davidhuntlighting.com

HAPPY PLACE

Make the most of your bedroom to help hit that full eight hours

THE BIG FINALE

Beautifully soft linen feels luxurious when you lay your head to rest (and is even better when it's not ironed). Being Collection by Ilse Crawford for Hästens. Pillowcase, from £180; bedding, from £610. hastens.com

» PRIVATE VIEW

Beautiful dreams are a given when you sleep with your favourite artist. Savoir can upholster, customise, and align some of the world's finest paintings onto its beds using digitally printed fabrics in a collaboration with The National Gallery. The Monet bed features Bathers at La Grenouillère by Claude Monet. £23,375 including traditional hand-made mattress, topper and bedlinen. savoirdesigns.com

SUBVERTING STEREOTYPES

Sheila Bridges' Harlem Toile design lampoons stereotypes of African American experiences. From £75, gingerlily.co.uk

« GET THE LOOK

For a modern country house vibe, choose a contrast design such as floral and small checks for the front and back of curtains. Langley floral (front of curtain) from the new Burford collection by GP&J Baker. From £197 p/m. gpjbaker.com